Wedding Terms & Conditions for providing the wedding flowers to you, the client.

- Upon booking you are agreeing to accept the value of your quote and these T & C's. Any increase in your order will be subject to the same Terms & Conditions.
- Quotes are valid for 30 days from the date of the quote. We reserve the right to re-quote after this 30-day period ends.
- The prices given in any quotation are subject to change should you wish to change the style, quantity, floral materials, or scale of any designs.

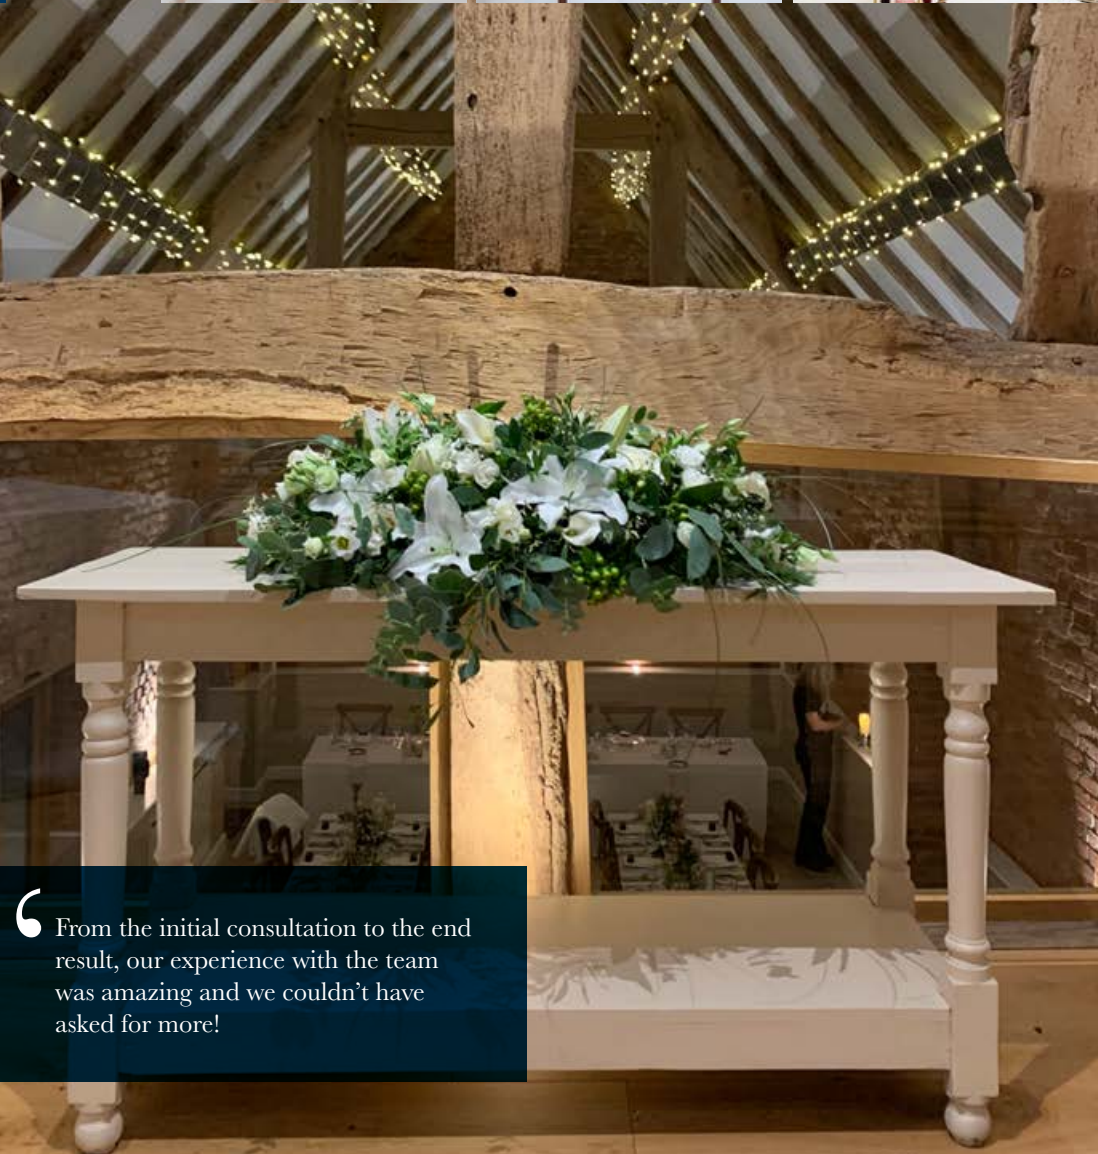

Providing the products

- Your flowers are pre-ordered up to one month before your wedding day, as such you have up until one month prior to the wedding to make any changes required known.
- Changes that are required after this may be subjected to additional fees and may not be possible depending on the scale of change. Due to the living nature of fresh flowers and foliage, there may be occasions where varieties are not available or readily sourced.
- All fresh flowers and foliage are subject to availability and high-quality assessment before being used within your wedding flowers. If a flower is unavailable, we reserve the right to use similar flowers of the same quality and value.
- The client is responsible for the care of the flowers after they have been delivered to the venue or collected from our premises. Any issues must be raised immediately with the florist delivering the flowers. We are not responsible for the care of your wedding flowers once we have left the venue or drop off point.
- John R Thomas Florist Ltd cannot be held responsible for non-delivery in extreme weather or acts beyond our control.

Hire of vases, china, candelabras etc.

- Where applicable it is the responsibility of the individual in receipt of this quote to ensure that all products lent from us are returned in the same condition as when they were delivered. If we are requested to collect items from the venues a collection charge will apply and will be included in the quote.
- Damage includes but is not limited to breakages, cracks, stains, or burns. The client will be responsible for covering the cost of any repairs or replacements.

“From the initial consultation to the end result, our experience with the team was amazing and we couldn't have asked for more!”
